    <h2>A Day Trip to MGM Dizzee World</h2>

    I would suggest the best time to visit MGM is in the winter season, in between November to February, when the sun is not too harsh, this would help you to avoid harsh sunlight during the day as you would be predominantly taking the fun rides all through out the day.
    <h2>How to reach the place</h2>
    Nearest Bus stop: MGM Dizzee world. All the buses on the way to Kovalam and Mahabalipuram tend to stop at MGM.

The best part of the whole experience was Water Sports. A replica of Koutralam waterfalls called Mini Koutralam, water slides were the best. Though the water was not super clean, the water sports were safe as the height of the water was less and felt safe for non swimmers like us.

There is a special show called “Alai Osai”, in which artificial waves are created for an hour. We had a great time flowing with the waves.

There are special changing rooms for men and women near the water park and if you forget to carry your swim costume, you can also buy one inside the park.

CONCLUSION:

In conclusion, this trip was an incredible journey of discovery and adventure. I learned so much about the local culture, met some amazing people, and experienced the beauty of a new place. I highly recommend visiting to anyone looking for a unique travel experience. As for me, I'm already planning my next adventure, and I can't wait to share it with you in my future posts. In development part 2 we will include the share, comment and interactive maps.
